THE HOUSE RULES OF COMIC SANS BRUSSELS

1. Support the Tavern: Entry is free, but every hero needs a potion! We ask that every guest orders at least one drink to support the venue and keep the lights on for future quests.
2. All Classes Welcome: Whether you're a level 100 Wizard or a total "noob," our tavern is an open and respectful environment. No gatekeeping allowed-geekiness is for everyone!
3. No Loot Hoarding: Please don't amass a mountain of board games at your table. You can only play one at a time anyway! Shared love is always preferred-keep the rest on the shelves so other parties can play.
4. Reset the Dungeon: Help us keep the place tidy! When your quest is over, return all pieces to their boxes and put the games back in their designated spots. A messy shelf is a "Natural 1" for everyone.
5. No Greasy Finger Attacks: Please use napkins! Smearing snack grease on a rare expansion pack or game board is an act of high treason.
6. Respect the Equipment: Treat our pinball machines and board games better than your own save files. Spilling a drink on the loot is an automatic "Game Over."
7. The Alchemist's Reward: When there's no table service, bring your empty glasses back to the bar for a 5% discount on your next order! It's a "Fetch Quest" with a guaranteed payout.
8. The Scholar's Discount: Leveling up your IRL skills? Show the bards your student card to unlock a 10% off loot buff on your bill.
9. Secret Menu: What?? Do we have anything else that's not on the menu? We just might, ask for our secret menu. But expect the unexpected
10. Mind the Mana: We follow Belgian law (16+ for beer/wine, 18+ for spirits). If your "Confusion" status is too high, our bards reserve the right to stop the tap.
11. Outside Rations: As long as we aren't serving food ourselves, outside food is welcome! However, no outside potions (drinks) are allowed.
12. The Tavern is a Safe Zone: Harassment or toxic behavior results in an immediate permanent ban. We play for fun, not for drama.
13. Final Boss Authority: The staff's word is law. Follow their instructions to ensure everyone has an epic experience.
14. Unlock the Network: Need to check a walkthrough? Connect to the Comic Sans Brussels Wi-Fi network using the secret password: cafecomicsans.
15. The Review Quest: Enjoyed your adventure? Drop a review on Google Maps to help our tavern grow! Scan the QR code below to teleport directly to the review screen.

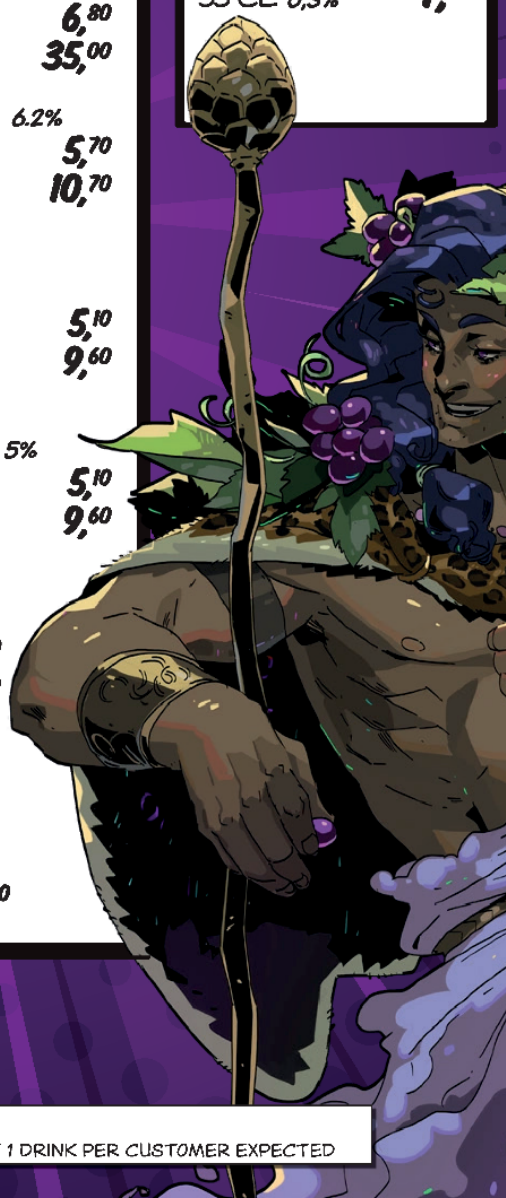
SECRET #1

BEER OF THE MONTH 6,66



One bill per table
We accept Bancontact, Visa and Mastercard. - Minimum of 1 drink per customer expected

Long before humans invented "Hops" or "Grapes," the gods (and some very busy bees) teamed up to create the world's oldest fermented loot. It's not a beer, and it's not a wine–it's its own God-Tier category of alcohol. Imagine if a flower and a sunbeam had a baby, and then that baby grew up to be a delicious, golden liquid that makes you want to swing a battle-axe. Whether it's infused with fruit (Melomel) or spices (Metheglin), it's the fuel of legends and the official drink of our tavern.

MEAD - HYDROMEL

Classic — 7,50

This is the baseline. If you don't know where to start your quest, start here. It's the "Mario" of drinks–reliable, iconic, and always ready for an adventure. Best enjoyed in a horn, a glass, or while shouting "Skål!" at a stranger. 11.0%

Cherry Blossom — 9,50

Legend says this batch was fermented under a rain of falling petals during a peak springtime event. It's infused with the essence of Sakura, designed for those who prefer their quests with a side of "Aesthetic. 9.5%

Apple-Cinnamon — 9,00

Legend says this batch was brewed using apples stolen from a forbidden orchard and cinnamon sticks traded from a traveling merchant. It's the ultimate "Rest & Relaxation" potion for tired parties 6%

Chestnut Forged from the Dark — 9,00

Robust honey of bees that specialized in chestnut blossoms, this isn't your standard "sweet nectar." It's an earthy, full-bodied brew that tastes like a campfire in a deep forest. Also tastes great warmed up. 11%

Cherry Ginger — 8,50

This isn't your grandma's honey wine. It's tart, it's zesty, and it's got enough "zip" to reset your internal clock. Perfect for those who like their sweetness with a side of "Ouch." 6%

Yucatan — 9,50

Harvested from the deep jungles of the Yucatan, this honey comes from bees that only visit the most "OP" tropical blossoms. It's been enchanted with the power of a thousand suns and a hint of ancient mystery. 11%

Fiery Dragon — 9,00

Starts with the deceptive sweetness of golden honey, quickly followed by a Critical Hit of Cayenne heat. It's a slow, rolling burn that makes your throat feel like a forge. 11%

"The child" — 12,50

This is the way... to a great night. Bacardi Razz meets Licor 43 and Blue Curaçao for a sweet, fruity adventure. Comes with a tasty candy frog (don't tell Mando).

Vice city — 12,50

Grab your Hawaiian shirt and turn up the synthwave. A high-gloss blend of Vodka, Peach, and Cranberry. It's sweet, fruity, and looks exactly like a 1986 sunset. Just don't crash your Cheetah on the way home.

Nuka cola — 14,00

Warm up the Pip-Boy! Our house take on the Long Island Iced Tea. Five spirits, one goal: survival. Served ice-cold with a kick that'll make you feel like you just stepped out of Vault 111. (Warning: May cause temporary loss of Perception).

Surfing pikachu — 14,00

A hidden HM03 move in a glass! We've blended Tequila with a sweet vanilla power-up and fresh OJ. It's bright, sunny, and hits like a critical hit. No Life Jacket required, but watch out for the paralyzing brain freeze.

The dude — 14,00

Careful, man, there's a beverage here! A classic blend of Vodka and Coffee Liqueur, topped with a cloud of milk foam. It really ties the menu together. Perfectly balanced for those who just want to abide. (White rug not included).

The gambit — 14,00

One punch tea — 14,00

Consecutive Normal Sips. We've packed Tequila and White Rum into a massive Green Iced Tea. It's crisp, clean, and hits with enough force to end any thirst in one go. (Warning: May cause sudden baldness and a desire to find a bargain at the supermarket).

Lightsaber — 14,00

Ignite the blade! A glowing, high-energy fusion of Licor 43, Blue Curaçao, and Vodka, supercharged with Red Bull and Sprite. It's bright, electric, and carries enough kyber-crystal energy to power a Death Star. Watch out for the recoil.

Papa smurf — 14,00

Straight from the mushroom village! A legendary blue potion of Vodka and Blue Curaçao, balanced with forest fruits and a sharp citrus bite. It's sweet, bright, and guaranteed to keep Gargamel away. One sip and you'll be singing "La la, lala la la" all the way home.

Wukong — 14,00

Captain hook — 15,00

A ticket to Neverland. We've stashed Brown Rum, Malibu, and Coffee Liqueur into a Pineapple-infused barrel. Dark, sweet, and dangerously smooth. Just keep an ear out for the ticking clock...

The walking dead — 15,00

Don't Open, Dead Inside. A heavy dose of Brown Rum mixed with a "bloody" grenadine swirl and a sharp citrus bite. It's fruity, it's fierce, and it'll keep you moving even if your brain has checked out. (Crossbow not included).

Los pollos hermanos — 15,00

Black Widow — 17.00

S.H.I.E.L.D. approved. A dark, sophisticated blend of six spirits with a sharp raspberry and lime sting. It's deep, mysterious, and carries a punch that'll catch you off guard. No red in your ledger after this one... maybe.

Poison Ivy — 20.00

Green, mean, and perfectly pristine. This botanical blend of Gin, Vodka, and Cointreau gets its "venom" from a lush Pisang base and a sharp citrus bite. It's sweet, floral, and strong enough to put Batman in a trance. Just try not to get too attached to the scenery.

Minsc — 25.00

Swords, meet juice! This 10-spirit behemoth is the ultimate "Berserker Rage" in a glass. Fruity, sweet, and absolutely chaotic, it's balanced with pineapple and cranberry to keep you in the fight. Just remember: butt-kicking for goodness! (Miniature Giant Space Hamster not included).

ALCOHOL FREE: 8.00

Butterbeer (warm)

Straight from Hogsmeade to the heart of Brussels. A creamy, butterscotch-infused hug in a mug. Served warm with a frothy head that'll leave you with a legendary mustache. Perfectly safe for Muggles and underage wizards alike!

Phoenix Sunset

Rise from the ashes! A brilliant, layered fusion of Orange and Strawberry, sweetened with a cosmic touch of Vanilla. It's bright, fruity, and looks exactly like a star going supernova. Perfectly safe for mutants and humans alike—no Dark Phoenix transformation required.

Pomme d'Amour

Straight from the village fair! A sparkling blend of Apple and Lime, glazed with a deep-red Grenadine glow. It's sweet, crisp, and fizzy—exactly like the candy apples you used to spend your gold coins on. Perfectly safe, no poison included (we checked).

Mario's Tonic

A botanical 1-Up! We've taken 0% Gin and charged it with a crisp Pomegranate and Basil Tonic. It's clean, sophisticated, and hits with a refreshing burst of herbal energy. Perfect for staying sharp while navigating Bowser's Castle—no mushrooms required.

Smurfette

The star of the village! A sparkling blue blend of Apple, Lime, and Blue Curaçao syrup. It's sweet, floral, and bright enough to outshine Gargamel's darkest plots. Perfectly safe for little Smurfs and big heroes alike. La la, lala la la!

A smooth execution! We've blended the peach-whiskey warmth of Southern Comfort with the sweet almond embrace of Amaretto. It's rich, sophisticated, and goes down easier than a snitch in concrete shoes. Take it in one go–it's just business, nothing personal.

Flatliner — 6,00
The ultimate system reboot. We've layered sweet Sambuca and sharp Tequila with a burning red line of Tabasco. It's sweet, it's spicy, and it hits like a Level 100 boss. Drink it in one go and pray your saving throw is high enough. Do you want to continue? [YES] / [NO]

Don't run, we are your friends! We've suspended a throbbing, creamy Baileys "brain" in a neon Martian sky of Peach and Blue Curaçao. It's sweet, fruity, and looks exactly like a high-definition invasion from the 90s. Drink it before the flying saucers land–and maybe don't play any Slim Whitman songs while you sip.

Mutagen — 6,00
Straight from the TCRI labs! We've layered dark, herbal Jägermeister over a shimmering neon-blue and gold-flecked core. It's sweet, spicy, and looks exactly like the radioactive ooze that created the Ninja Turtles. Drink it fast before you start craving pizza and speaking in 90s slang! COWABUNGA!
